

s 2017 0060

The invention relates to apiculture, in particular to a process for growing bees.

The process, according to the invention, comprises feeding the bees with a mixture of 50% sugar syrup and 30.0...120.0 mg/L of iridoid glycoside 1-epi-5-O-alosilanthirinoside, in the amount of 1.5...3.0 L per bee family, 1...2 times in the autumn, with an interval of 5...9 days, and 1.0 L of mixture per one bee family, every 10...12 days in spring, from April to the beginning of the main honey flow.

Claims: 1