

94-0283

The plants have an ellipsoidal form with raising leaves and corimbiform inflorescence of middle density. The medium height of plants (without inflorescence) is 148 cm and varies from 126 to 168 cm depending on age.

The leaves are sessile, elliptic-extended of green colour, in phase of technical maturity are light-green.

Medium number of technical leaves is 25-27, the length of leaf of medium tier is 52-60 cm, the breadth - 25-32 cm.

The sort is midseason-ripening, weak or almost doesn't form side-spoors.

The harvest of dry leaves is 24-28 q/ha, respecting the agrotechnic recommended. The raw material has a characteristic colour of yellow-gold, highly material (61-72 g/m²) with optimal content of solvent carbohydrates (16-19%).

Possess a resistance in the field at tobacco mosaic, is semisensitive to virus of Addison's disease of tomatoes on tobacco. In periods of nurseries and field, the sort manifests a resistance at bacteriosis, is resistant at root's decay.

At the cultivation it is necessary to respect the established technology for the large-leaved tobacco of sort Virginia.