

94-0299

The invention relates to the pyrimidine derivatives which are used as fungicides.
There are claimed compounds of formula I, where any two groups from K, L and M represent nitrogen, the third group represents -CH= and the other are represented in the description.

The technical result consists in preparation of the pyrimidine derivatives with the rised fungicidal activity.

Claims: 1