

95-0132

The variety (Armeniaca vulgaris Lam.) with registered denomination Moldavskii olympiets is grown by the crossing of varieties 2-25-22 x (Badem Eric + Nahicevanskii Krasnii). The variety is devided into districts of the Republic of Moldova for all zones of apricot varieties cultivation. The variety is intended for using as fresh fruits and for the processing. The fruit coloration is of orange colour, bright-carmine, covering the 0,5 of fruit surface. The pulp is of orange colour having palatable, sourish-sweet taste and a tender apricot fragrance.