

95-0133

The apricot variety (Armeniaca vulgaris Lam.) with registered denomination Nadejda is grown by the sowing of the Shaller variety seeds by the method of free pollination. The variety is divided into districts of the Republic of Moldova for all the zones of apricot varieties cultivation. The variety is intended for using as fresh fruits and for the processing. The main fruit coloration is yellow with pale-carmine colour on the sun side. The pulp is of the yellow colour, juicy, of palatable taste, with the delicate fragrance.