

95-0437

The vine sort (Vitis), is registered under the application of Moldova, is obtained by crossing of the sorts Guzali cara (Prolis orientalis) with the Villard 12-375 flended species resutant hybrid, is intended for the table grape, which is used fresh and is districted in the Central and South zone of the Republic of Moldova.

The sort is characterized by a healthy growth, having big, orbicular, five-lobed, low-dissected, sinusoidal, bad-open leaf, the marjinal teeth are big, three-cornered the superior part of it is light-green, the flower is of both sexes, the bunches are average-big, of a cylindrical form, the berry is big, pulpy and has a pleasant taste, it is disease and frost resistant, grown without applying the pathogenic factors control remedies, with a crop capacity of 110-120 g/ha.