

96-0051

The vine sort (Vitis) is registered under the appellation of Kişmiş Moldavschi is obtained by crossing of the vine sorts Victoria and Kişmiş rose, is intended for fresh utilization, districted in the South viticulture zone of the Republic of Moldova. The sort is characterized by high-spreaded bushes, good complete maturation of the annual accretion, the leaves are medium or big, the superior side of the leaf is plain, the inferior one is univillous, it is of both sexes. The bunches are big, the berries are medium-sized, having a thin, transparent skin, it is pulpy, without seeds. It has a crop capacity of 110-150 g/ha, relatively frost resistant, it is cultivated on a high stem, gray-mold resistant, transportable and winter storable.