

96-0333

The invention relates to the medicine, in particular to the oncology and can be used for the preoperative mamma cancer treatment.

The summary of the invention consists in the fact that the proposed method includes the intravenous chemotherapy, the 6 Grey basic single dose radial therapy, the local chemotherapy and local microwave hyperthermia.

The technical result of the invention consists in strengthening the harmful direct action upon the cancer cells and in the prevention of metastasization thereof.

Claims: 1