

96-0394

The invention relates to the veterinary immunology, particularly, to the remedies for animals immunologic system potentiation.

The summary of the invention consists in the fact that as remedy for animals immunologic system potentiation there is used bee-bread alkaline hydrolyzate in the concentration of dry substances of 25 mg/ml.

The technical result of the invention consists in the T- and B-lymphocytic systems and lysozyme stirring up, neutrophiles phagocytic activity and bactericide sanguineous serum activity increasing.

Claims: 1