

97-0075

The invention relates to the veterinary immunology, particularly, to the methods for animals immunologic system potentiation.

Method for animals immunologic system potentiation includes the intramuscular administration of the bee-bread alkaline hydrolyzate in the quantity of 0,5...1,0 mg/kg 3-4 times in 3-5 days.

The technical result of the invention consists in the T- and B-lymphocytic systems and lysozyme stirring up, neutrophiles phagocytic activity and bactericide sanguineous serum activity increasing.

Claims: 1