

98-0026

The invention relates to medicine, particularly, to the oncology.

Summary of the invention consists in the fact that the first section is executed from the medial areola edge along the upper edge thereof with a passage to the lateral one and is continued in the semi-oval up to the medioaxillary line with 5...6 cm below the axilla apex, the second section is executed from the first section beginning, passing the tumor by the semi-oval in the healthful tissue limits and is finished in the first section end, then there are formed two integumentary flops, the part of the mammary gland is ablated with the tumor together with subclavical - subscapular - axillary lymphadens and cellular tissue, thereafter the wound is sutured and active drained.

The technical result consists in reservation of the mamelon-areola complex and lower mammary gland quadrants.

Claims: 1

Fig.: 2