

99-0221

The invention relates to the electrophotographic data medium and allows to increase the medium quality.

The injecting layer for that is made of alternative antimony and arsenic chalcogenide interlayers. The injecting layer is applied between the metalized dielectric base and the transporting layer.