

a 2000 0088

The invention refers to medicine, in particular, to the plastic surgery and is provided for fracture complications treatment (anomalous or delayed knitting, pseudoarthroses, posttraumatic osteomyelitis), unclosing wounds, gravitational ulcer and different bone-articulation system diseases accompanied by degenerative processes.

The proposed remedy contains a primary tissue culture, prepared of bird embryos, e.g., chicken or quail ones of 9th - 12th incubation day and of the supernatant obtained at separation of the tissue culture at the component ratio accordingly of 1,0:1,5...1,0:3,0.