

The invention refers to medicine, namely to balneology.

The method consists in that there are used the hydrosulphuric (H_2S - 49...79 mg/L) and sodium chloridic (NaCl - 69...72 g/L) mineral waters, with a high content of iodine (20...25 mg/L) and bromine (130...140 mg/L), at the temperature of 36...37°C, during 15 min per procedure, which is carried out within two days, with a repose on the third day. After each procedure a rest of 30...40 min. The treatment is of 12...14 procedures.

Claims: 1