

a 2001 0217

The invention refers to medicine, namely to the infectious diseases.

Summary of the invention consists in that for treatment of the Herpes simplex infection the patients are prescribed an etiological, anti-inflammatory, sedative, analgesic, topical treatment, immunomodulators and vitaminotherapy, as well as additionally within 15 days they are administered 2 times a day for 50 mg of pacovirin per os.

Claims: 1