

a 2003 0201

The invention refers to medicine, namely to obstetrics.

Summary of the invention consists in that beginning with the term of 16...18 weeks of pregnancy it is determined the serumal fibronectin level once in 1...3 weeks and in case when its level exceeds 5,0 ng/ml it is diagnosed the development of the arterial hypertension.

Claims: 1