

s 2017 0033

The invention relates to agriculture, in particular to a process for presowing treatment of common onion seeds.

The process, according to the invention, comprises soaking of common onion seeds before sowing for 15 minutes in a 0.01% aqueous solution of the sum of glycosides, obtained from Melampyrum nemorosum L. plants by extraction with 60% ethanol on heating.

Claims: 1